DR. BERRY ADDRESSES THE STUDENTS OF UNION

ON THE QUALIFICATIONS OF A MINISTER.

The Rev. Dr. Charles A. Berry, of Wolverhampton, England, spoke yesterday afternoon to the students of Union Theological Seminary. The Rev. Dr. Amory H. Bradford, of Montelair, offered a prayer, and President Hall introduced the speaker. Dr. Berry began by saying that he would not make a formal address or exposition, but would speak as a student to fellow-students. He referred with enthusiasm to the minister's vocation, and with enthusiasm to the minister's vocation, and said: "The statesman has not a titue of the influence that the preacher may possess. Yes, the preacher still holds the supreme position in modern life." He dwelt at some length upon three essential qualifications of a minister. He said that a minister must believe the message he has come to deliver, and he must know that message as a matter of personal experience, and not gather it from a book. In the second place he must know the men to whom he has to preach that message; and in the third place, the minister must believe in himself as a divinely called servant of eternal truth and of all mankind.

Dr. Berry said the modern pulpit had learned how to make great principles lucid, but that it should learn from the seventeenth century pulpit how to take truths obtained by scholarship and apply them to the varying needs of the people. "The recovery of the note of reality," he said, "Is the greatest need of the Church." tions of a minister. He said that a minister must pended letter yesterday:

New-Orleans, November 5, 1897.

Hugh J. Grant, Esq., New-York City.

Dear Sir and Friend: I have read your political forecast of the New-York election, your carefully prepared estimate of the vote that would be cast, and the number of ballots expected for Van Wyck. I must say, in all candor, that the result is a great credit to your political indement and sagnety. I believe that Tammany should have its wigwam graced with a real living representative of the organization. I send you, by express, a beautiful specimen of a tiger. He is but two and one-half months old, and was brought to this city from San Juan del Norte. Nicaragua, the is playful and kind in disposition, and will be very handsome. He is as satisfied with his surroundings as I know Tammany is over the result of the election in Greater New-York. Give him a place of honor in your great wigwam.

You will please accept this beautiful emblem of mighty Tammany's glerious victory, with the compliments of your friend.
